

PROVINCE

About

Province is a space to explore & discover the rich diversity of contemporary South East Asian ingredients together.

Ingredients are from within the region, with a focus on seasonal produce. By limiting each dish to only 5 components, the essence of the ingredients can shine & you'll be able to taste every nuance of their natural flavours & textures.

Here, charcoal fire is not only the main mode of cooking - it is also harnessed as another key ingredient to impart its own flavour to the dish & invoke a sense of familiar comfort with what many of us call wok hei, or breath of fire.

We hope you will enjoy the menu we have put together for you. Province has been designed to be an interactive dining experience; the chef would be happy to answer any questions you may have regarding the food you will be tasting.
